

Published Date:	Sunday 6th October, 2019	Publication:	The Times of India [Bangalore]
Journalist:	Moushumi Bora	Page No:	20
MAV/CCM:	342,357/24.63	Circulation:	488,486

Wolf looks to turn the page

Moushumi.Bora@timesgroup.com

Gurugram: There is a quiet determination about Christine Wolf this week. The high-fives with her mates after stepping off the greens said it all. A win will mean so much more to her. It will be her redemption song after the howlers last year at precisely the same stage of the Hero Women's Indian Open.

A bogey-free 5-under 67 for an 8-under total was the perfect set-up for the final battle with the sometimes unforgiving DLF G&CC Gary Player course. On an otherwise smooth outing, Wolf hit the hazard on the eight but made a good recovery on the second shot for a par and that gave her a push in the right direction. Two birdies followed on the 11th and 12th and she closed with two more on the 17th and the 'dreaded' 18th.

WOMEN'S INDIAN OPEN

Amateur Anika shines with a 67

Anika Verma, the 15-year-old Noida girl who is now settled in the US, powered up the board to tied-9th along with Tvesa Malik, courtesy a 5-under 67.

Leading 3rd round scores: 208 (8-under): Christine Wolf (Aus) 73-68-67; 209-Meghan MacLaren (Eng) 67-73-69; 210-Marianne Skarpnord (Nor) 68-71-71, Whitney Hillier (Aus) 67-71-72; 211-Tonje Daffinrud (Nor) 73-70-68;

Best Indians: 215 (T9)-Anika Verma (am) 76-72-67, Tvesa Malik 72-72-71; 216 (T13): Vani Kapoor (74- 70-72); 219 (27)-Amandeep Drall 72-70-77.